

Completion of a PDE system to involution is construction of a differential Groebner basis of the special form for the ideal generated by polynomials occurring in PDEs. This basis is called involutive. In the talk we reveal an important role of completion to involution in numerical solving of the PDE systems by the finite difference method.