

Abstract:

A result on the exterior problem for nonlinear wave equation with smooth and small initial data in 2D is presented. By assuming that the nonlinearity is of cubic order and satisfies null condition and that the obstacle is star-shaped, we are able to show the problem has a global smooth solution. Our proof is based on the weighted point-wise estimates for the solutions.